Renault Pro+ is back at the International Commercial Vehicles Motor Show in Hanover

The 66th IAA Commercial Vehicles is the leading international trade fair for mobility, transportation and logistics and it is held in Hanover, in Germany, 21-29 September, 2016.

Renault Pro+ is back to showcase a tailor-made offer based on its full line-up designed to meet the varied needs of professional customers worldwide.

Renault Pro+ is presenting four conversions based on the new Renault Alaskan pick-up, as well as new technologies of enhanced traction and automatic transmission.

Renault Pro+ is also announcing a new partnership with Renault Sport Formula One Team.

Hanover Showcases Renault Pro+ Tailor Made

Renault Pro+ continues its international expansion with an even wider tailor-made offer of LCVs and pick-ups, designed to meet the varied needs of professional customers.

Renault Pro+ is presenting four conversions based on the new Renault Alaskan pick-up, reflecting the diversity of its expertise: Ambulance, Fire Fighter, Aerial Bucket and Road Safety Patrol vehicle.

The tailor-made offer is also available on vans. Renault Pro+ is now delivering new solutions for enhanced traction, with the Renault X-Track line-up and Master 4x4, geared to a range of uses, occasional or intensive, and to different types of terrain.

Moreover, Kangoo is now available with the automatic EDC (Efficient Dual Clutch) transmission, meeting high standards in performance and fuel-efficiency.

A tailor-made offer for Formula 1, to enjoy the thrill of motorsports

Renault Pro+ is also working with Formula 1 through a partnership set up with the Renault Sport Formula One Team.

Adapting to the needs of Formula 1, the LCVs will be present trackside. To celebrate this partnership and to share our passion for motorsports, a limited series Formula Edition in golden yellow and black will be available across the LCV range.

Building on its position in Europe, with 18 years as the No. 1 in LCV sales, and a strong base in Latin America and Africa, Renault Pro+ is pursuing its global ambitions with an even wider range of vehicles tailored to the many and varied needs of business customers. Renault Pro+ is continuing to expand its offer through a range of services dedicated to LCV users, delivered primarily through a global network of 650 specialist centres, meeting the highest standards.
