RENAULT REVEALS ZOE MODEL YEAR 2022

Renault ZOE, the bestselling EV city car in Europe is now available with new finishes and trim levels for the Model Year 2022 with a new Shadow Grey body color.

The success of Renault ZOE hasn't stopped growing over the years. ZOE has seen its sales increase steadily year after year. The city car owes this growth to its constantly-updated technology housed within a design which continues to win over drivers. ZOE is the top-selling electric car in Europe over the past decade, with almost 380,000 units sold by the end of May 2022.

With model year 2022, ZOE comes with new versions : equilibre, evolution, iconic.

Starting from equilibre the vehicle features the AEBS (advanced emergency braking system), the signature 22kW AC charger, enabling to recover energy up to 3-times faster compared to the closest competitors. ZOE Equilibre also comes with the keyless card with approach to unlock, manual AC a 10 inches TFT cluster plus a 7 inches multimedia central display with smartphone replication (compatible with Apple CarPlay and Android Auto) and 4 loudspeakers inside of the cabin. On the outside, the ZOE name on the rear now features the signature warm titanium "e" as well as an E-Tech electric badge displayed on the lower right part of the trunk door. ZOE equilibre is available in France from €27,700 inc. VAT and government incentive.

The evolution trim level comes as standard with traffic sign recognition system, lane departure warning and lane keeping assist. It also adds the rear parking sensors for more comfort and the automatic air conditioning. The 7 inches multimedia display includes the navigation system. On the exterior a shark antenna and the new 16" Eridis diamond cut rims comes as standard. ZOE evolution is available in France from €29,800 inc. VAT and government incentive.

The top of the range iconic trim-level features new 17" dark alloy wheels with a warm titanium accent. The front grill and the foglights surroundings are now in gold color while a new lateral sticker takes place at the bottom of the doors. On the inside ZOE iconic comes with a new upholstery made from TEP and recycled fabric featuring a new embossing design on the seats and the dashboard. A gold piping is also added on the front seats as a highlight of their iconic shape. The multimedia display comes in a large 9.3" version with navigation embedded. ZOE iconic is available in France from €30,900 inc. VAT and government incentive.
