Renault Sandero R.S. 2.0 gets new Racing Spirit limited edition in Brazil

Infused with the DNA of Renault Sport, the Renault Sandero R.S. 2.0 gets spiced up with a new limited edition named Racing Spirit.

The Brazilian best-selling hot hatch now offers new Michelin PS4 tires paired with 17" alloy wheels, red brake calipers and wheel center caps. Red is also spread on the F1-style blade, side-view mirrors, along with the diffuser and new "Racing Spirit" side stripes.

The cockpit-inspired cabin adds sportiveness to the Sandero R.S. 2.0, beginning with the numbered plate near the gearshift lever which records the serial number of this Limited Edition. Red side air vents and speedometer trim ring embellish the all-new black roof; seats also feature red stripes and stitches. Glossy black center fascia and inner door handles complete the Black & Red sport harmony inside.

Designed and styled by Renault Sport Cars engineers working as a team with their Latin-American colleagues from Renault Design Latin America and Renault Technocentre America, the Sandero R.S. 2.0 is a genuine sports car. Manufactured at the Renault plant of Curitiba, the Sandero R.S. 2.0 Racing Spirit Limited will be displayed at Buenos Aires Motorshow from June 10th to 20th 2017.
